

DAHLIA SHIPPING COSTS 2026

SHIPPING TIMES AND METHODS

We will start shipping the plants from our spring dahlia sale on May 11, 2026. Please note that if the weather is particularly cold and the weather forecast shows frost throughout European countries, we may postpone the shipping for a week or two until the weather allows for a frost-free transport.

We will ship your plants by the DPD shipping company. They have slightly different pricing and delivery times for each EU country. We are aware that the shipping prices are rather high, but our priority is to get the sensitive plants to you as safely as possible and we find DPD to be the most reliable and safe shipping option.

We expect that most of the pre-ordered dahlias will be shipped between May 11 and May 15. The later orders will be shipped next week after the order.
